Updated February 12, 2023

What You Are Purchasing

You are purchasing the right to use the song Dance With Me, Baby for one wedding. You are permitted to share a copy of the song with the bride and groom and, as stated below, you may share a copy of the song with the DJ or Sound Engineer.

I am an independent artist/songwriter. Everyone is entitled to compensation for their original art/music/services in order for them to be able to earn a living and continue creating. Please honor that.

Video Usage of Recording

If using the song in a video of your wedding event, you are allowed to use no more than 30 seconds of the recorded material. If you wish to use more than 30 seconds of the song, please contact me to obtain a sync license.

Information For DJs and Sound Engineers

You may provide a copy of the song to the DJ or Sound Engineer but it is your responsibility to make sure that the DJ or Sound Engineer understands that this song has been purchased for the sole purpose of your wedding and that any other use is unlawful.

It is a violation of copyright protection law to share the link/song with anyone, in any other capacity, or for any other reason or event but the wedding event of the purchaser. To use it outside of these copyright restrictions is unlawful, preventing the artist from earning due compensation for their creation.
